Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Cook spent Sunday in Kansas City visiting their son, Lon, who has a position in a Western Union telegraph office at that place.

The Signal has at least learned one important feature of journalism—it has employed a circulation liar, and seems to be otherwise "getting up to snuff."

Quite a number of Keytesvillians celebrated the Fourth at Glasgow. The party was chaperoned by Messdames. H. C. Minter, G. C. Martin and Frank Hansman.

Arthur Reid has taken out letters of administration on the estate of his father, J. J. Reid, who died suddenly of heart failure, at Mendon, some ten days or two weeks ago.

The Methodist church is being nicely painted on the interior and also beautifully papered, thanks to the good ladies of that denomination. M. R. Carmon is doing the work.

James Baker is confined to his bed the result of having stuck a thorn in his foot while in bathing last Saturday. It is always more or less dangerous for people to take a bath any way.

A horse belonging to W. A. Friesz, just west of town, fell dead while being driven through the street by Mrs. Friesz yesterday morning. The animal was 19 years old and was blind in both eyes.

Geo. N. Elliott returned from the world's fair yesterday morning. His sister, Miss Nannie, and Miss Lula Watson and little Misses Marcie and Ida Elliott will not return before the first of next week.

The COURIER is under obligations to the esteemed Signal for the use of their press Monday, necessitated by the breaking of a casting on our roller, carriage, just after we had gone to press. Such favors are always appreciated.

A train on the Glasgow and Salisbury branch of the Wabash railroads was derailed a few miles north of Shannondale one afternoon last week. The accident was occasioned by a broken axle. There was no one hurt by the shake-up.

Miss Carrie Cunningham, of Brunswick, was the victim of an unpleasant accident one day last week. While whittling on a box, the knife slipped and severed an artery in her left wrist. She was getting along nicely at last accounts.

The elements seem to "have it in" for the neighborhood of Pee Dee. They had hardly recovered from the effects of the storm Wednesday night, two weeks ago, when they were overtaken by a severe one Sunday morning of last week.

Mrs. Don Brumhall and Mrs. Spiersnager, of Salisbury, were thrown from a buggy one afternoon last week. The accident was caused by the team running away and turning the vehicle over. They were both more or less injured.

A real mad dog made its appearance on the streets of Salisbury one day last week. The city marshal went in pursuit and soon overtook and dispatched his dogship, not before, however, the rabid animal had bitten several other dogs.

The members of the A. F. and A. M. lodge, at Westville, celebrated St. John's day, the 24th of June, by holding a public installation of their officers. A large audience was on hands to witness the ceremony and partake of the bounteous repast.

A couple of swarms of bees have colonized one side of Bartholomew & Green's store house, at Bynumville. They entered by means of knot holes from the out side and are utilizing the space between the studs for stowing away their sweetness.

The Rev. S. Y. Pitts, pastor of the First Baptist church at Salisbury, and wife are taking a vacation during the summer. They will spend the time at Lebanon springs, in South Missouri. Rev. G. P. Bewick will occupy his pulpit in the interim.

Pay Up.

I have made out my accounts for this season and wish all those indebted to me would please call and settle. Your prompt attention to this request would greatly oblige me.

MRS. C. P. VANDIVER.

M. H. Holcomb, the originator of low prices on lumber, plants an advertisement in this issue of the Courier. Peruse it carefully, as it contains much of interest to every person needing anything carried by that enterprising gentleman.

Philip Theis, the quiet, inoffensive blacksmith who works for J. P. Tippet, swore out a warrant yesterday against John and Clark Ward, Bill White and John Fuqua charging them with common assault Saturday night. The two Wards and Fuqua were tried yesterday before Mayor Ford and by a jury and acquitted. White will be tried today.

T. J. Moorman returned last Friday from his visit to the world's fair very much pleased with his trip. Quite a number of the party who accompanied "Jeff," including Miss Grace Egan, of Keytesville, will view the grandeur of Niagara Falls before returning home.

M. T. Davenport, the efficient and ever accommodating superintendent of the county poor farm, has a cow which brought two calves on Thursday of last week. Both of the young bovines are males. One of them tips the beam at 80 and the other at 77 pounds. What cow can make a better showing?

Mrs. J. M. Collins and sons, Van and Ernest, accompanied by Bud Dodge, drove over from Mendon last Friday. Miss Nora Hodges accompanied them home and will make Mrs. Collins an extended visit. Master Van and Ernest Collins went from here to Columbia to visit their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Vandiver.

Mrs. James Myers, accompanied by her niece, Miss Lou Lesley, left for Kirksville last Monday for a visit to relatives. They returned home yesterday morning, accompanied by Miss Lois Lesley, another niece of Mrs. Myers, who is pleasantly remembered by many Keytesville friends, having visited here a few years ago.

Extreme diseases require extreme remedies. The way to suppress the blood, whether white or black, in Keytesville, is to deal out punishment commensurate with the offense committed. The harder the character to deal with the heavier should be the punishment imposed. Hoodlunism and midnight brawls must be suppressed.

The famous battle-field of Gettysburg was animated last Saturday by quite a different army than was marshalled on its hill-sides in 1863. It was the thirtieth anniversary of the dreadful three-days' battle fought on the grounds in 1863. The governors of New York, Pennsylvania and Virginia, with thousands of people from these and other states, assembled to commemorate their fallen heroes.

The report that three bold, bad men went to the residence of William Brasher, cashier of the Hartley bank, at Jerriec, Cedar county, Mo., and marched him up to the bank and made him unlock the door and also the safe, and then proceeded to rob the bank turns out to be false. Brasher had already robbed the concern, and circulated this report to conceal his crime. He was arrested and placed under bond, but has since skipped with $35,000 of the bank's money.

J. S. Divilbiss, of Taney's Point, Eay county, accompanied by Dr. N. B. Wooley, of Bragmar, Caldwell county, arrived here last Friday to visit the former's son, Rev. John R. Divilbiss, who is lying quite sick at the residence of his brother-in-law, Dr. H. T. Garnett, four miles northwest of Keytesville. We have just learned that the young man died early Thursday morning, after suffering several weeks from a complication of diseases, but the reports are so meager and for want of space we are unable to give an extended account of his death.

Governor Stone was called to Nevada, Mo., last week to testify in the case of Vernon county against Colonel King, an ex-recorder of the county. After the trial of the case was over, the governor overheard Col. King reflecting on his, the governor's, veracity. This so outraged the feelings of his excellency that he sprang from his seat and seized the crutch of a lame man hardby, and made a vicious stroke at the head of Col. King, which the Col. was happily able to ward off with his umbrella. Friends finally interfered and peace was restored.

Henry Starr, murderer, train robber and bank wrecker operating in Western Kansas and Indian Territory, was arrested at Colorado Springs, Colorado, Sunday night by Deputy United States Marshal Dana. His wife and kid Wilson, another member of the gang, were also arrested at the same time. The arrests were effected without difficulty, and was a complete surprise to the two. They will be taken back to Fort Smith and held in close confinement.
